TORONTO: The 20th India-Canada Chamber of Commerce Charity Golf Classic tournament at the Graystone Golf Club in Milton on June 26 raised funds for the Mackenzie Health Foundation. The tournament was an overwhelming success with nearly 100 enthusiastic amateur golfers teeing off the club.

The annual golf event is a traditional meeting place for veteran and new members of the Chamber. In fact, some members are regulars at the golf event, and participate in the tourney because every year the Chamber contributes the proceeds to a specified charity. This year, the ICCC had picked the Mackenzie Health Foundation.

The team comprising Avtar

Brar, Indy Brar, Mohinder Singh and Bhinder Singh won the tournament. Kanwar Dhanjal, President, ICCC, Venki Raman Vice President CIBC, Mayor of Milton His Worship Gordon Krantz and Sanjay Makkar, Chair Golf Committee presented the winning team with the rotating trophy.

Speaking on the occasion, Kanwar Dhanjal emphasized that the Chamber had taken important measures to engage the business community to ensure accountability and rapid growth of the organization. Talking about his team's efforts, the ICCC President said, "We had a successful business Expo in November which was attended by over 300 Indian business delegates and Annual Gala 2018 early this month which provided great value to our members and stakeholders."

Ibsen's Classic Play 'Doll House' In Tamil At Markham Festival

MARKHAM: The Manaveli Performing Arts Group, Canada's premier Tamil theatre group presented a Tamil translation of Henrik Ibsen's celebrated 19th century play 'A Doll's House' at its flagship event, 19th Arangaadal - Festival of Theatre and Dance - at the Flato Markham Theatre for the Performing Arts on Saturday June 30. There were two shows - at 1:30PM and 6:30PM.

This project was a labour of love for translator and director P Wikneswaran, who was introduced to this play by his mentor at Sri Lanka Broadcasting Corporation over 40 years ago and has dreamed of translating it and producing it ever since.

"This play, when it premiered in 1879, aroused great sensation and controversy and is still capable of stirring passionate discussions in a community such as the Tamil community in which the covenant of marriage is considered holy and sacred," said Wikneswaran.

"Its continued resonance with today's audiences is a sad indictment of our society," he said. UNESCO has inscribed Ibsen's manuscripts of A Doll's House on the Memory of the World Register in 2001, in recognition of their historical value

Wikneswaran is a veteran of theater, TV and broadcasting of over 50 years in Sri Lanka and Canada. "He has managed to stay true to the original production for setting - Norway circa 1879, while speaking a language accessible to today's Tamil audiences," said Manaveli's Selvan Sel.

Iconic Sports Complex Is Now Officially Known As Paramount Fine Foods Centre

MISSISSAUGA: As Canada celebrated its 151st birthday on Sunday, Mississauga's iconic sports complex officially adopted its new name, Paramount Fine Foods Centre.

"We're truly looking forward to this next chapter in one of our city's most cherished landmarks," said Mayor Bonnie Crombie. "The Paramount Fine Foods Centre will continue to be an important hub for entertainment and celebration in our community; bringing together spectators and participants to enjoy a wide range of world-class entertainment, sports, family events and more!"

Earlier this year, the City of Mississauga announced the new agreement for naming rights and food services with Paramount Fine Foods, which includes the spectator arena, community ice rinks, fieldhouse and outdoor sport fields. The entire complex will now be known as Paramount Fine Foods Centre.

"Not only is it home to the Mississauga Steelheads and Raptors 905, but it also hosts so many of Mississauga's great events like Carassauga, and is used by our amateur athletes all year round," said Paul Mitcham, Commissioner, Community Services for the City of Mississauga. "We're so grateful to Paramount Fine Foods in recognizing the venue's importance to our residents and for making a significant investment in our community."

New signage and enhancements reflecting the new name and partnership are underway. They will continue over the summer as the complex prepares for another busy event season this fall. All @Hershey-Centre social media channels on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram will be changed to @PFFCentre.

Some of the premier events coming to Paramount Fine Foods Centre this summer include the Royal Canadian Family Circus, Camp 905, Classics & Rods Review Show 2018 and the Duke University Basketball Canada Tour.
