

Salman Welcomes Katrina Into 'Bharat'

MUMBAI: Bollywood superstar Salman Khan has welcomed Katrina Kaif to the cast of "Bharat" in style, by calling her "sundar" (beautiful) and "susheel" (virtuous).

"Ek sundar aur susheel ladki jiska naam hai Katrina Kaif... Swagat hai aapka 'Bharat' ki zindagi mein (A beautiful and virtuous girl named Katrina... We welcome you the world of 'Bharat')," Salman tweeted on Monday. Katrina, who has given several hits with Salman at the box office, will play his love interest in "Bharat", directed by Ali Abbas Zafar.

The three are reuniting for the period drama after "Tiger Zinda Hai". Zafar had also directed Katrina in "Mere Brother Ki Dulhan", and is looking forward to working with his "three collaboration buddy".

Katrina has stepped into a role which was originally being played by Priyanka Chopra, who according to Zafar, opted out of the project "in the Nick of time". His announcement alluded to US media speculations about Priyanka's engagement to American singer-songwriter Nick Jonas.

"Bharat" went on floors earlier this month. It has already begun the first schedule, including a grand circus sequence featuring Salman and Disha Patani. Katrina will join the shoot in the upcoming schedules beginning in September.

Nandita In Unesco-Madanjeet Prize Jury

MUMBAI: Acclaimed actress-filmmaker Nandita Das was among the jury members of the 2018 edition of the Unesco-Madanjeet Singh Prize for the Promotion of Tolerance and Non-Violence.

Nandita, who is in the midst of a grueling schedule, working towards the India release of her much-awaited film "Manto" and its participation in international film festivals, found it rejuvenating to get this invite to participate in a meaningful initiative.

"Having been on many film juries, right from 2005 when I was on the main jury at the Cannes Film Festival, I have always enjoyed the deliberation process. One gets to know different perspectives that reflect different experiences and contexts," Nandita said in a statement.

In recognition of a lifelong devotion to communal harmony and peace, the Prize bears the name of its benefactor Madanjeet Singh, who was a Unesco Goodwill Ambassador, Indian artist, writer and diplomat.

It is awarded every two years, on the occasion of the International Day for Tolerance on November 16. The Prize is marked by a ceremony and the winner is presented with a sum of $100,000.

For Nandita, this was the second time that she was on a jury for a social impact initiative. She finds such engagements "very inspiring". "One gets to meet and read about people who are doing incredible work around the world. It's a good distraction between our own indulgences. Unesco Director-General Audrey Azoulay had appointed the jury, which also included Nadia Bernoussi, a celebrated academic and legal expert from Morocco, and Abdoulaye Konate, a prominent artist in Mali.

Celebrating its 22th anniversary and its eleventh edition this year, the prize rewards significant activities in the scientific, artistic, cultural or communications fields aimed at the promotion of a spirit of tolerance and non-violence, according to the official Unesco website.
