

A Flurry Of Winter Fun Is Coming To Brampton

Skating In Gage Park

From outdoor skating to skiing, tubing and even festive charitable events, it's no secret that Brampton is a hotspot for winter activities. A host of winter fun is taking Brampton by storm in the coming weeks and you don't want to miss out!

What's happening in Brampton this winter?

Free outdoor skating

Outdoor ice skating rink openings are weather dependent, and could be open as early as the first week of December.

The City currently operates three outdoor ice skating rinks: Chinguacousy Park Skate Trail, Mount Pleasant Outdoor Skating Rink, and Gage Park Outdoor Skating Trail.

The Gore Meadows Community Centre outdoor ice rink is also scheduled to open soon, weather permitting.

The skating trail through the trees at the majestic Gage Park attracts families and skating enthusiasts from Brampton and beyond. It's a wonderful and unique experience, and it's free!

On Friday and Saturday evenings, as well as Sunday afternoons, you can skate to the sounds of a DJ and warm up at the fire pit! Skate/Helmet Rentals and a Food Trailer are operational Thursdays to Sundays.

The Chinguacousy Park Trail

The Chinguacousy Park trail is designed in an irregular 'canal' shape, it features natural bends to allow skaters of all abilities to practise their skills, while maintaining a comfortable flow. Seating is also available along the trail.

The trail boasts more than 2000 sq. meters of ice surface and can accommodate up to 500 skaters.

Christmas in the Park

On Saturday, December 15, families can enjoy a day filled with holiday cheer at Chinguacousy Park. Activities include breakfast with Santa, writing letters to Santa and building gingerbread houses. Registration is required for each activity.

Mount Chinguacousy – skiing, snowboarding and tubing

Mount Chinguacousy comes alive when the snow falls. Bundle up and hit the slopes beginning December 27 (weather permitting) on Brampton's own ski, snowboard and tubing hill. Improve your skills with a ski or snowboard lesson and warm up in the cozy chalet. Entrance to the ski chalet is at the corner of Central Park Drive and Bramalea Road.

The Mount Chinguacousy Ski and Snowboard Open House 2018 is happening on Saturday, December 1 from 12 to 3 pm at the Chinguacousy ski chalet. Visit us at the ski chalet and let our experienced staff help prepare you for your winter season.

Holiday programs

Have fun and stay active over the holidays with a wide variety of camps and other festive programs. Before and after care is available. Details are available in the Brampton Recreation Guide.

Giving back events

Food and Toy Drive

From December 3 to 16, residents are invited to drop off non-perishable food items or new, unwrapped toys at City Hall or any community centre or library in Brampton.

Donations will be given to local food bank and community kitchen, The Knights Table. The organization helps by providing hot meals and other services to the people of Brampton who deal with issues of hunger, poverty and homelessness. Knights Table is supported by various levels of government, businesses, charitable foundations, groups, churches and individuals. They remain open 365 days a year to serve over 79,000 meals annually.

Stuff-A-Jeep

Enforcement officers will be at Walmart, 50 Quarry Edge, on December 8 from 11 am to 4 pm accepting food and toy donations to support those in need in the Brampton community. All donated items will go to the local Toys for Tots and the Salvation Army Food Sharing Network.
