

Hook To Headline Brampton New Year's Eve Fest

BRAMPTON: The City of Brampton has announced Juno nominated artist Shawn Hook as the headliner for the 2018 New Year's Eve celebration.

The live concert, curated with support from Brampton's own SoundDrive Records is scheduled for Garden Square from 8pm to 12 midnight. The concert will feature the Julian Taylor Band, as well as Brampton based artists, Raz, Melle Rose and DJ Tam. Firework displays presented by Tim Hortons will take place at both 9 pm and 12 midnight.

DJ Tam will kick the party off in Garden Square at 8 pm followed by Melle Rose at 8:30 pm. The first of two fireworks shows is set for 9 pm. Musical entertainment continues at 9:10 pm with Raz and the Julian Taylor Band at 9:50 pm. Canadian pop icon Shawn Hook will take the stage at 11:05 pm leading up to midnight and second firework display.

Ahead of the concert, everyone is encouraged to visit Gage Park to view the thousands of sparkling winter lights and skate on the trail. Family-friendly entertainment at City Hall start 6:30 pm to 9 pm with a live dance party in the Conservatory as well as a roaming magician and warming area in the Atrium. A fireworks show in Garden Square, has been scheduled at 9 pm for those wanting to ring in the New Year a little earlier in the evening.

Brampton New Year's Eve 2018 is sponsored by the Downtown Brampton BIA.

About Shawn Hook

Pop singer-songwriter Shawn Hook is no stranger to electrifying crowds. His debut single "Sound of Your Heart" is now certified Platinum in Canada, his Hollywood Records premiere EP My Side of Your Story shows his flair for musical and emotional colours and his single, "Reminding Me", has already drawn national attention.

The sensual ballad features Shawn in duet with Vanessa Hudgens, all grown up since her High School Musical days. Hook has collaborated with such big names in the industry as Ryan Tedder of One Republic and songwriter Ammar Malik, toured the U.S., Canada and Europe with Lindsay Stirling and Marianas Trench, and also signed with Hollywood Records/Universal Music Canada. Additional information about Shawn Hook can be found here.

About the Julian Taylor Band

The Julian Taylor Band is from Toronto and performs a mix of soul, funk and rock. Julian Taylor himself is the afternoon host for the brand new indigenous owned Toronto radio station ELMNT FM. He's been nominated for various indigenous music awards and last year he sang on stage with Marianas Trench at the National Aboriginal Day televised event in Halifax

About Raz

Raz, a hip-hop artist, is no stranger to the stage in Brampton having performed as an opening act as part of Garden Square's Friday Night Live music series in 2018. He is currently working on a soon to be released EP and often plays acoustic guitar on stage as part of his show.

About Melle Rose

Melle Rose is also a previous Garden Square performer having participated in the Wednesday Brampton on Stage music series in 2018. She also performed at the Vibrant Brampton event this year. Melle is a pop, rock and country singer and songwriter who currently lives in Brampton.

Ride Brampton Transit FREE on New Year's Eve starting at 7 pm. For more event information, including transit schedules and road closures visit www.brampton.ca/nye

Kruti Thaker Wins Top Prize At Singing Talent Show

MISSISSAUGA: The Grand Finale of Season Three of the 'Mere Sung Gaa Season 3 Singing Reality show' saw 11 finalists competing for the championship at the Glenforest Secondary school Auditorium in Mississauga.

Adline Integrated Media Services, the organizer of this show, made sure that the event was full on entertainment. There was a sub-group Competition within two Groups of 3 Singers Each. The complimenting factor was the Live Band of Natchathraa managed by three university female students Birunthaa, Januja and Surekha and their team of musicians who enthralled the audience with live, pulsating music. Each singer felt like a performer.

The judges' panel headed by Mr. Muhammad Munir Maani, an IT professional and a classical singer gave his fair and wise judgement and selected the winners of the season.

"As is the case every year it is difficult to select the winners, as all of them are very tough competitors with a very minor margins in their scores," he pointed out. ADLINE every year also organizes the Judges training workshop conducted by Mr. Maani, all the contestants benefited out of it. This year they added an extra voice training workshop conducted by a leading Artist here Mr. G Balasingham, who has given training to enormous Singers in GTA.

Winners of the current season were: Aditya Naqdiwala & Kaushik Panchal 2nd Runner UP TIE, 1st Runner UP Krishna Acharya and the champion was female singer Kruti Thaker breaking the last two seasons' traditions of a male winning the title. In the group singing Competition, the Group B Won comprising of Sunny Dudeja, Eshan Gopal and Glory Guliani. Consolation Prize was won by Mathusha from Group A as she gave a Stellar performance from her Group.

The second segment was the past Seasons Winners Concert which was the icing on the cake for the audience.

Adline organized mini segments of a fashion show called "Parichay" which was choreographed and directed by Ms. Somya Mishra, who is also a classical dancer and fashion show organizer. A series of fashion designers / make up artists and models participated in Parichay - all were former winners of Raaga Models fashion show pageants.

Another achievement by Adline is their own album Ilteja which is being launched by Ultra Music of Mumbai, a leading music label in Bollywood.

The first album song is by Mere Sung Gaa past season winners Rishabh and Palak. Adline announced that they would continue to produce such albums and launch the singers from the Mere Sung Gaa Series.

Special highlight of the event was commemorating World Seniors Month.

Narinder Dhuga, president of Sahara Senior Services was honored by Adline for his services to senior citizens of the community. His selfless effort in educating seniors about the laws/their human rights was appreciated. Mr. Narinder Dhuga said he felt really honored to be a part of the event and assured continued support all Adline events in future.

Adline represented by Girish Krishnan, thanked all the sponsors/media partners and talented musicians for their commendable support in making this event a grand success.

To know more about Adline and their future events, visit www.Facebook.Com/meresunggaa or email bollywoodkarokesinging@gmail.com

Gahir Law Office

Barristers, Solicitors, Mediators & Arbitrators

Services:

Family

Divorce, Custody & Access

Immigration

Sponsorships, Admissibility and Appeals

Criminal

Impaired Driving, Drug offenses etc.

Civil Litigation and

Business Law

Residential & Commercial Real Estate

CPP Disability Appeals

Will & Estate Planning

Harinder Singh Gahir B.A., LL.B.

905-789-0585

373 Steels Avenue West, Suite 206 Brampton, Ontario L6Y 0P8

JOB OPPORTUNITY FURNITURE UPHOLSTERERS

We are looking for experienced upholsterers with a minimum of 3 years of experience. We are offering competitive wages and benefits.

Send your resume by email to hr@decor-rest.com or by Fax to 905-856-8711, You can also call 905-856-5956 x5304