

Glitz & Dazzle At Ranveer-Deepika's Reception

MUMBAI: Well known personalities from Bollywood, sports and political backgrounds attended Ranveer Singh and Deepika Padukone's wedding reception, a black-tie industry party night at The Grand Hyatt on Saturday in Mumbai.

Actors including Sara Ali Khan, Ishaan Khatter, Disha Patani, Tiger Shroff, Aditi Rao Hydari, Radhika Apte, Jim Sarbh, Lara Dutta along with husband Mahesh Bhupathi, Vidya Balan with Siddharth Roy Kapoor, Hema Malini with son-in-law Bharat Takhtani attended the wedding reception.

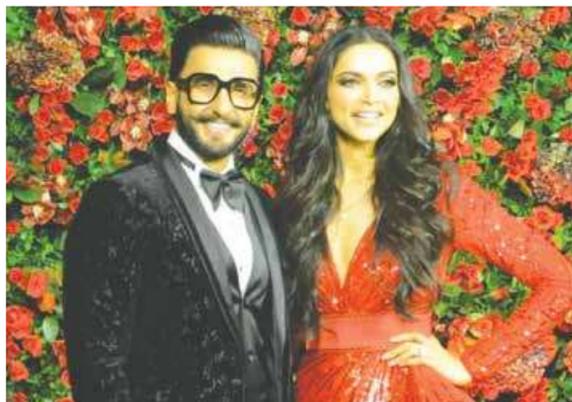

Kapil Dev and Sachin Tendulkar also attended the function, along with their wives.

For their third wedding reception, the couple arrived looking nothing short of regal as Ranveer wore a classic black piece suit with a bow tie designed by Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna. While Deepika was a treat to sore eyes in a jam coloured embellished gown designed by Zuhair Murad.

The list of attendees also included producer Vidhu Vinod Chopra and his wife Anupama Chopra, Vicky Kaushal, Rekha, Rakeysh Omprakash Mehra with his wife, Kalki Koechlin, Nimrat Kaur, R Madhavan and his wife Sarita Birje.

Ranveer and Deepika tied the knot on November 14 in Italy in a traditional Konkani ceremony, which was followed by a Sindhi wedding on November 15.

Both the functions were fiercely intimate with just about 40 guests in attendance and a ban on prying mobile phones and paparazzi. The security at the wedding venues was reportedly at par with that provided for a meeting of world leaders.

On their return, the two hosted a reception for Deepika's relatives in Bengaluru, followed by a DJ bash organised by Ranveer's sister Ritika Bavani for the couple.

The couple then hosted their second wedding reception for Ranveer's relatives and friends in Mumbai on November 28.

On the work front, they were last seen together in Sanjay Leela Bhansali's "Padmaavat".

Sarna's Bunty In 'Sacred Games' Will Be Back In Season 2

MUMBAI: Actor Jatin Sarna, who made a big impact with a small role as Nawazuddin Siddiqui's volatile hitman Bunty in "Sacred Games" will be back in Season 2 of the Netflix series, although his character was killed in the first season.

"The second season goes into a flashback. My character Bunty is on a wheelchair. So I need to harness and control my natural energy level to play a subdued physically limited character," Jatin said.

Jatin, who got his part in "Sacred Games" by fluke when he accompanied a friend to the audition, says he is learning constantly from his co-stars.

"I started late in films. So I am curious, eager, anxious, impatient to do as much work as possible, play challenging characters. But I don't want to exceed my speed limits," he said.

Jatin is also excited about his next feature film "Bumfaad", directed by debutant Ranjan Chandel. In the film, Jatin shares screen space with Paresh Rawal's son Aditya and Shalini Pandey.

"I'm very excited about this one. It is a totally new team, young fresh and raring to go. I am at a stage where I want doors to open for me. I want to explore new characters work with directors with new ideas."

Saif Really Proud Of His Little Sister

MUMBAI: Actor Saif Ali Khan says he is proud of his little sister Soha Ali Khan for getting nominated for her book.

Soha has been nominated in the best biography category at the Crossword Book Award for her book "The Perils of Being Moderately Famous".

Saif said in a statement: "I'm really proud of my little sister for being nominated for the Crossword Book Awards."

The awards ceremony will take place on December 20 here.

Soha, also an actress, had won the Book Award for Excellence in Writing on Cinema at the Jio MAMI 20th Mumbai Film Festival with Star for "The Perils of Being Moderately Famous".

Soha had said: "It's an incredible honour to receive this award. I've been part of the industry for about 12-13 years as an actor. But it's great to be recognised for my writing."

Arjun Embarks On 'Panipat' Journey

MUMBAI: Actor Arjun Kapoor has started shooting for Ashutosh Gowariker's upcoming "Panipat" period drama.

Arjun tweeted: "Embarking on a journey like never before... with Ashutosh sir and our entire team."

Actress Kriti Sanon, who is starring with Arjun in the movie, said she is excited to start this "new chapter".

She tweeted: "Our 'Panipat' journey begins today. Super excited for this new chapter.. going to join you guys in two days. Let's do this! Panipat shoot begins today." Hindi litterateur, poet and essayist Ashok Chakradhar has penned the dialogues for "Panipat", which will tell the story of what led to the Third Battle of Panipat. It will be produced by Sunita Gowariker under their home banner AGP-PL in association with Vision World.

The film is slated to release on December 6, 2019. It also stars Sanjay Dutt.
