Top Canada Award For Deepa Mehta

TORONTO: Acclaimed Indo-Canadian filmmaker Deepa Mehta will be given the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television.

A post on the official Twitter account from The Canadian Academy read: "We are thrilled to announce that Deepa Mehta will be given the Lifetime Achievement Award."

"We are proud to recognise the artistry of Ms. Mehta and the tremendous impact she has had on the fabric of Canada's entertainment industry."

Mehta, best known for her Elements Trilogy - "Fire", "Earth" and "Water" - replied: "Thank you so much The Canadian Academy. You made my day - hell, my year!"

The Canadian Screen Awards are awards given annually by the Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television recognising excellence in Canadian film, English-language television, and digital media productions.

Mehta's "Earth" was submitted by India as its official entry for the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film, and "Water" was Canada's official entry for Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film. "Earth" was the first to receive an Oscar nomination.

In May 2012, Mehta received the Governor General's Performing Arts Award for Lifetime Artistic Achievement, Canada's highest honour in the performing arts.

Sense of responsibility Needed: Anupam

MUMBAI: Veteran actor Anupam Kher says that it is important for public personalities to have a sense of responsibility.

Anupam on Saturday treated his fans with a Q&A session on Twitter, where a user asked him if public figures (actors and sportspersons) are role models. Should they always be held to the highest degree of moral and ethical standards or given a more lenient treatment?

"It is very important for public figures to have a sense of responsibility," he replied.

Another user asked the actor if he could tweet in support of actress-filmmaker Kangana Ranaut's latest release "Manikarnika: The Queen Of Jhansi". Anupam called Kangana a rockstar.

"She is brilliant. I applaud her courage and performances. She is also the real example of women empowerment," he said. Talking about his favourite scene from the 1995 film "Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge", he said: "My scene with Shah Rukh Khan about celebrating failure." A Twitterati said that "Uri: The Surgical Strike" overshadowed his film "The Accidental Prime Minister".

"So what? I am so happy about it. Josh over behosh," he replied, with a smiling emoji.

Asked what made him take up the medical series "New Amsterdam", he replied: "Challenge of acting in an English language series. I think in Hindi. Also 'New Amsterdam' is an amazing series to be part of."

Talking about what film's failure bugged him the most, he said after the 1991 film "Lamhe" did not do well at the box office when it was released, he was disappointed.

"But now it is considered to be a cult classic. Maybe it came before its time," he added.

What's next for Anupam?

"I have a Hindi film called 'One Day' directed by Ashok Nanda. It is coming up sometime in May. It is a thriller," he shared on Twitter.
