Referring to his wife Twinkle's previous tweet on his fire act, he wrote: "P.S. Don't tell my wife."

Earlier this month, Akshay was literally on "fire" while promoting one of his projects here., leaving Twinkle very angry.

Rima Roots For More Female Filmmakers

MUMBAI: National Award-winning filmmaker Rima Das says that she would like to see more women in the film industry to make a name for themselves.

Earlier this week, she won the Dublin Film Critics Circle Jury Award for Best Director for her movie

"Bulbul Can Sing". For the same movie, she will be conferred the 'Someone to Watch' award at the Cleveland International Film Festival, which will begin on March 27.

"Both 'Village Rockstars' and 'Bulbul Can Sing' have strong women characters at the centre.

"It's wonderful that the critics and audiences alike are very receptive to such stories.

"It also goes on to reiterate that it doesn't matter whether the film is helmed by a male or female filmmaker," Rima said in a statement.
